Prof. Dr. Milenko Kreca, Serbia

Member of Venice Commission and
Judge ad hoc of the International Court of Justice

Prof. Dr. Milenko Kreca is a Judge ad hoc of the International Court of Justice since 1993 in the cases related to the Application of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide and the Legality of the Use of Force. Judge ad hoc the European Court of Human Rights; Member of the Permanent Court of Arbitration in the Hague and since 2013 a member of the Venice Commission.

Graduated from the Law Faculty of the University of Belgrade. Earned an LLM degree in 1974 and upon graduation, practiced law as an attorney. In 1977 obtained Ph.D. in Law.

Full time Professor of International Public Law at the Belgrade University Faculty of Law since 1990; Head of Chair of International Law and International Relations at the Faculty of Law in Belgrade (since 1997); Member of the Board of the Faculty of Law in Belgrade (1998-2000); President of the Scientific Council for Legal and Political Sciences at Belgrade University (1999-2004); Director of the Institute for Legal and Social Studies, Faculty of Law, Belgrade (2004-2006); President of the Board of the Faculty of Law in Belgrade (2006-2009);

Director of the Institute for International Politics and Economics (1997-2000); President of the Council of the Institute for Comparative Law (1997-2000); Member of the Federal Commission for Harmonization of FRY Law with the Laws of EU, EC and WTO (1998-2000); President of the Serbian International Criminal Law Association since 2002 and the President of the Serbian Association of International Law Since 2013.

Author of various books, articles and monographs.